MENTAL HEALTH

Family Sensitive Practice

Date: Tuesday, 11th December 2012
Time: 9.30am to 5pm
Location: Ground floor 270 Auburn Road
Hawthorn VIC 3122

Facilitator: Bouverie (TBA)

The Bouverie Centre, Victoria's Family Institute focuses on the important role of the family and the power of relationships to foster social, emotional and mental wellbeing for at risk individuals and their families and for the community at large. We are publicly funded with the majority of funds emanating from Victoria's Department of Human Services.

Program:

Family sensitive practice is an introduction to a range of values and practices that privilege notions of appropriate and respectful family involvement in clinical management and treatment. It is a culture that promotes and sustains effective working relationships between clients, carers and workers.

Non members price: $100

ARAFEMI Members price: $75
